Tuesday, April 8. 1707.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated April 15.

Genoa, March 22.

ON Thursday last Dr. Newton, Envoy extraordinary of England, made his publick Entry into this City, and afterwards went to the Council, to whom he made an Eloquent Speech in Latin, containing in Substance, that the Queen of Great Britain is resolv'd to maintain a good Correspondence with our Republick, &c. Two Deputies were appointed to give him Thanks for his Speech, and to assure him that as this Republick has hitherto, so they will continue to observe an inviolable Neutrality between the contending Potentates in the present War. We shall pay no Contributions to the Germans. Some Vessels laden with Powder for the Duke of Savoy are arriv'd here.

Genoa, March 26. To Day the Savoyards take Possession of Final. Eight Ships are hir'd here by the Duke of Savoy and Prince Eugene, to carry 40000 Sacks of Corn and Oats to Spain, for the Subsistence of King Charles's Army. The Council have met often, to consider of the Propositions made to them by Dr. Newton in the Name of the Queen of Great Britain. Our Garrison in Savona is reinforced with 300 Men.

Mantua, March 25. To Morrow the French Troops, to the Number of 5000 Men, will march out of this City. To Day the Prince of Vaudemont gave a noble Entertainment to the Imperial General Wetzel and several other General Officers of the Allies. 70 Waggon's loaded with Baggage belonging to the French Troops, went from hence this Morning, under a Guard of 80 German Hussars for Cremona. 2000 Imperialists are come into the Neighbourhood of Borgoforte, in Order to take Possession of this City as soon as the French quit it. By Order of Prince Eugene a List is taking of all the Horses in this Dutchy.

Milan, March 31. 1000 Peasants are at work in filling up the Trenches and levelling the Works that were made against our Castle. At the Request of the Inhabitants, Prince Eugene has caus'd all the German Troops to march out of this City, and has only put a Garrison of 1200 Men into the Castle; the Fortifications of which will be speedily repair'd, the City Council having undertaken to furnish Materials necessary for that Service, together with 12000 Ducats in Money. Final is now in the Possession of the Duke of Savoy, who has given Order for a new Fort to be made for the Security of that Port. The Prince of Vaudemont's Baggage, which is very considerable, is arriv'd at Pavia: That Prince and General Medavi are expected here daily, and Prince Eugene has caus'd great Preparations to be made for their Reception. Workmen are employ'd Night and Day in erecting a large Theatre in the Square before the Palace, on which Prince Eugene will next Wednesday, in the Name of King Charles III, receive the Oath of Fidelity of all the Tribunals of this City, and thereupon take Possession of this Dutchy and its Dependancies, with great Solemnity.

Pavia, April 11. Yesterday Collonel Guethem set out from hence, with 2 other Officers that were taken Prisoners, for Troye: Endeavours were us'd to perswade him to take Service in our Troops, on Promise of Advancement, but he generously rejected the Proposition. On Friday last the Duke of Vendome was above 3 Hours with the King in his Closter, and receiv'd his Orders and Instructions for the ensuing Campaign. He has since taken Leave of his Majesty and of the whole Court, and sets out to Morrow Post for Lille. Expresses from the Duke of Berwick have brought Advice, that the Armies continue quiet on the Frontier of Valencia, and that he was about to take a Journey to Madrid, in Order to assist at a Council of War on the Arrival of the Duke of Orleans, and settle with him the Operations of the Campaign. 6800 Recruits for the French Troops were arriv'd at Cuenza; but nothing can be propos'd to be undertaken till the End of April. The Marshal de Tesse is expected at Court from Grenoble, the Count de Medavi being to command in his stead in Dauphine and Savoy. The 9th Instant the rest of the Marshal de Villars's Baggage was sent away from Strasbourg, and the Marshal himself waits only for the King's last Orders to be gone likewise.

Pavia, April 11. Yesterday Noon M. Cronstroom Envoy extraordinary from the King of Sweden, having receiv'd an Express from Saxony, had a private Audience of the King. The Designs for the ensuing Campaign are still kept secret. Letters from Madrid of the 27th of last Month advise, that Don Joseph Alonso de Parama was to set out from thence the next Day for Brest, to see the two Spanish Ships which are arriv'd there from the West-Indies unladen, and the Plate that is for the King sent hither with all possible Expedition. The Armies on the Frontier of Valencia have not made any Motion of Consequence, because there is not yet Forrage enough on the Ground for the Horse. 'Tis believ'd the Armies on both sides will continue canton'd till the Middle of April. We have confirm'd Advice from Pampelona, that the Irish Regiment of Collonel Taff, consisting of 450 Men, being on the March out of Valencia to reinforce the Allies in Arragon, were surpriz'd between the Mountains, by Collonel Salzedo with 150 Spanish Horse, and taken Prisoners. Some Letters from Versailles say, that if our Affairs prosper in the Netherlands, the King designs a Journey to Compiene.

Plymouth, April 4. This Day sail'd hence Her Majesty's Ships the Falkland and Medway's Prize, and under their Convoy about 30 Ships for Newfoundland, Guinea, Virginia, &c. Here continue Her Majesty's Ships the Royal-Oak, Kent, Chester, Shoram, Hector, August, Advice's-Prize, Pool, Ruby and Feverham.

Shields,

Shields, April 4. This Week sail'd out of this Port in two Fleets, above 100 Sail of laden Colliers.

Harwich, April 5. The Marlborough and Eagle Pacquet-boats, that put to Sea on Tuesday, were by contrary Wind forc'd back agen after two Days and Nights being at Sea; so here remain 4 Mails for Holland. Yesterday the Merlin Sloop came in hither from the Nore, with a Fleet of Coasters bound to the Northward.

London, April 8.

His Grace the Duke of Marlborough went on Wednesday the 3d Instant in the Evening on board one of Her Majesty's Yachts at Margate, and set Sail for Holland, under the Convoy of a Squadron of Her Majesty's Ships. The next Day they dropt Anchor off the North-Fore-land. On Friday, by the help of the Tides, they got in sight of Ostend, and afterwards arriv'd at Flushing, where his Grace landed the same Day.

The new Alliance Pacquet-boat Captain Green Commander, carrying 24 Guns, sail'd from Falmouth the 18th of March with 2 Mails for Lisbon, carrying the Letters of the 4th and the 11th ditto. In her Passage she fell in with a Frigate of Dunkirk of 26 Guns, and a Privateer of St. Malo of 24 Guns; with whom she maintain'd a Fight from 9 in the Evening till 8 the next Morning, when having several of her Men kill'd or wounded, she was forc'd to yield to the Enemy, who carried her to Brest.
